

GSS Education Analysis (Working Title)*

GSS Education Analysis (Working Subtitle)

Emily Kim

Huda Sahaf

Chloe Thierstein

12 March 2023

abstract (work in progress)

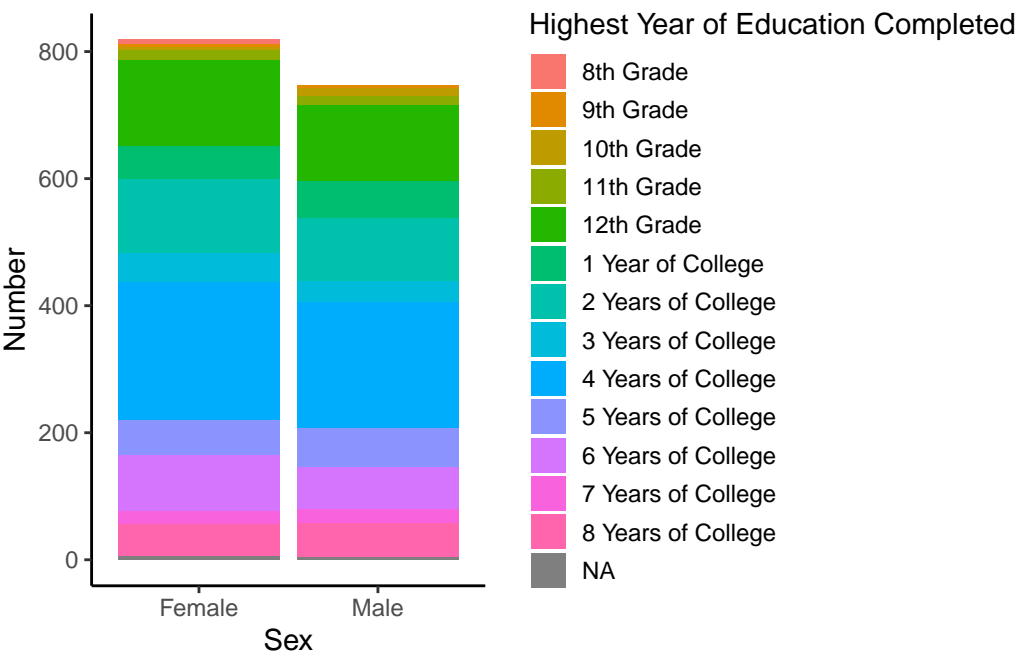

Figure 1: Respondent's Sex by Highest Year of Education Achieved

*Code and data are available at: https://github.com/cthierst/gss_education_analysis.git

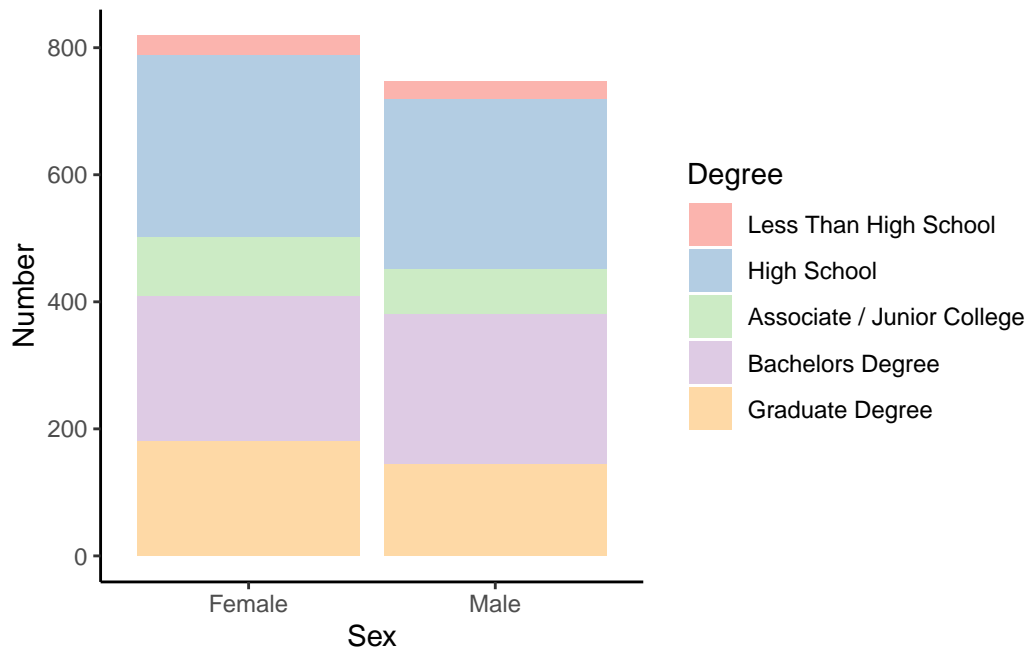

Figure 2: Respondent's Sex by Highest Level of Education

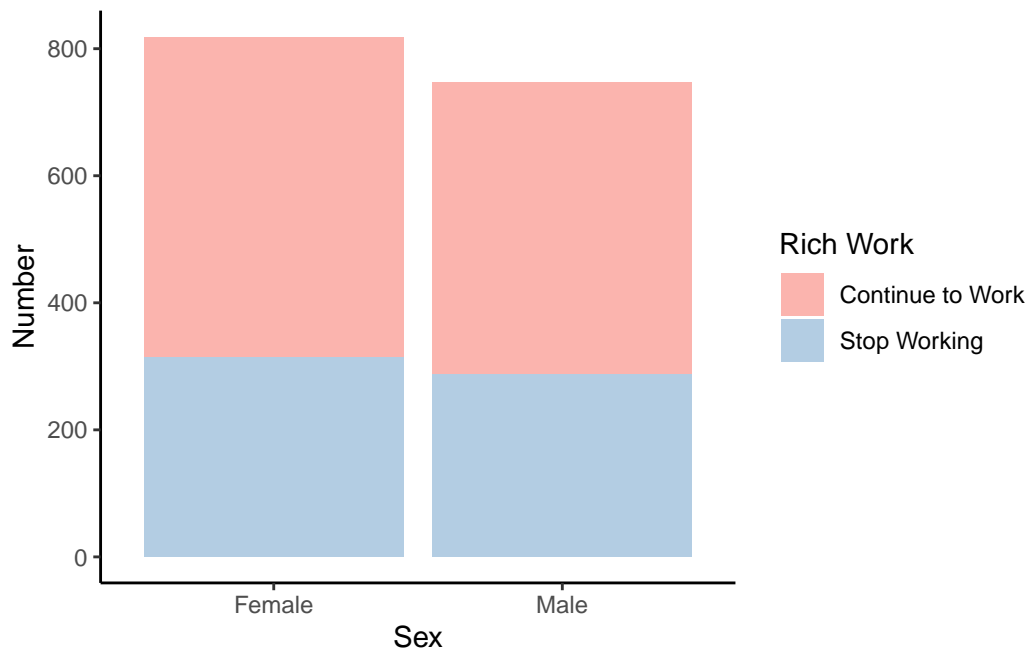

Figure 3: Respondent's Sex by Highest Level of Education

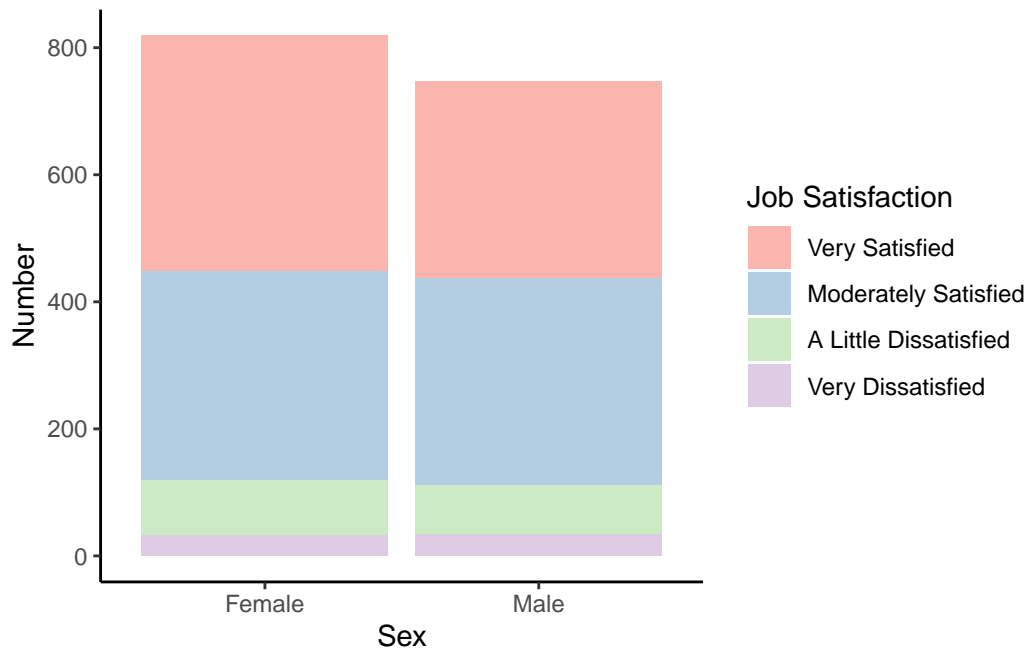

Figure 4: Respondent's Sex by Job Satisfaction

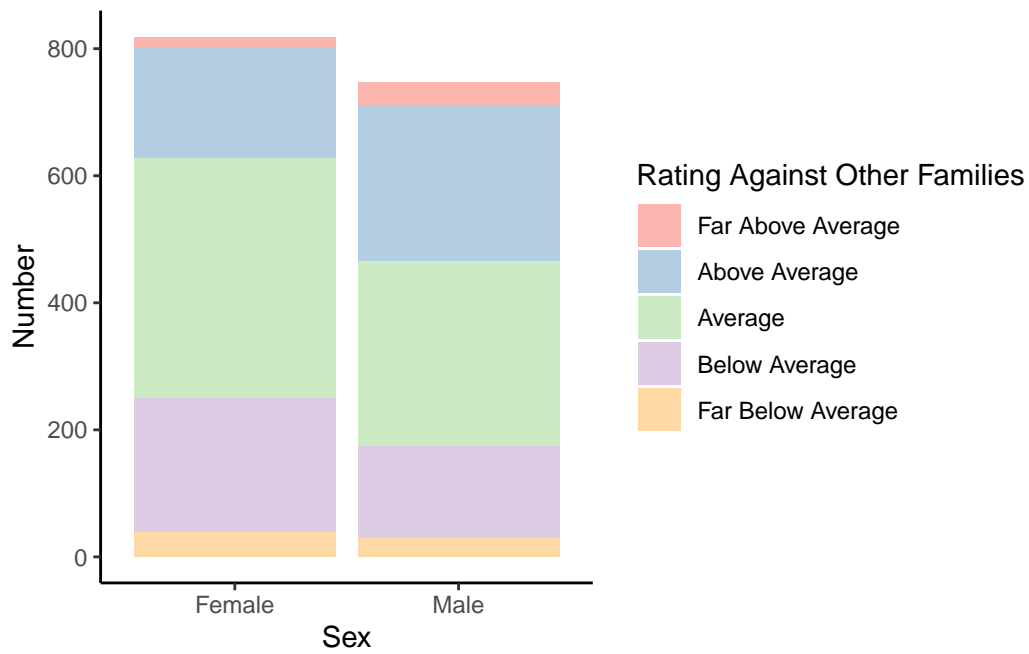

Figure 5: Respondent's Sex by Self-Defined Financial Ranking Against Other US Families

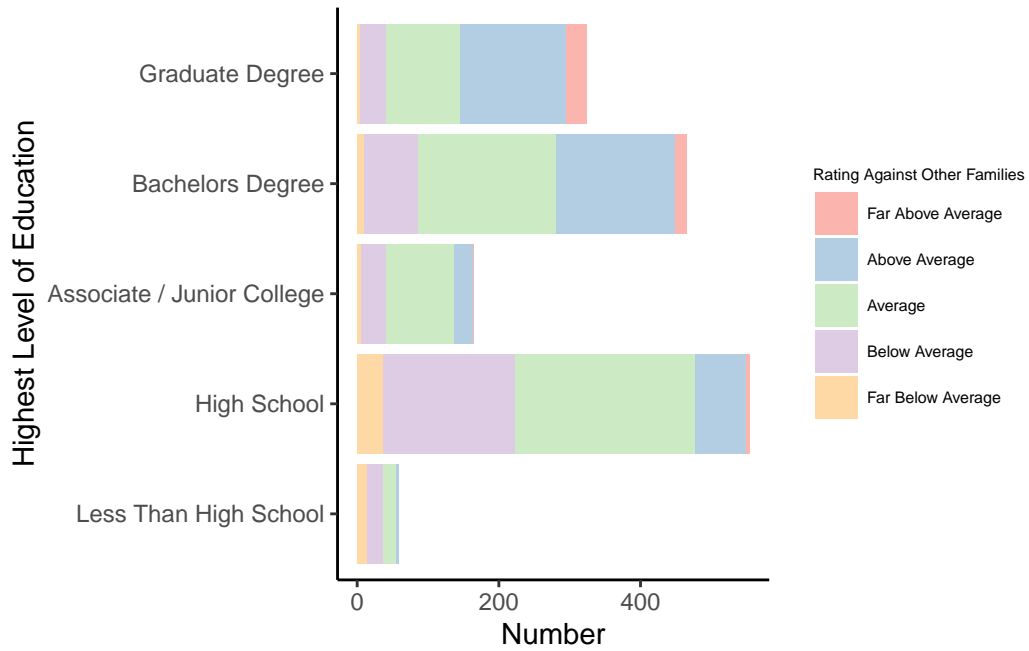

Figure 6: Respondent's Highest Level of Education by Self-Defined Financial Ranking Against Other US Families

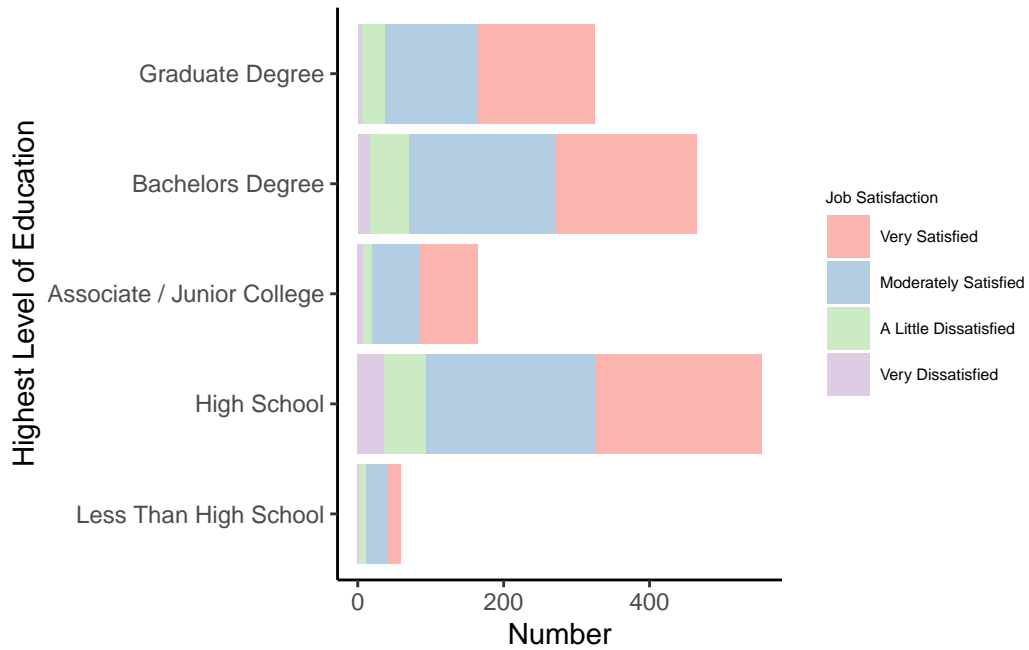

Figure 7: Respondent's Highest Level of Education by Job Satisfaction

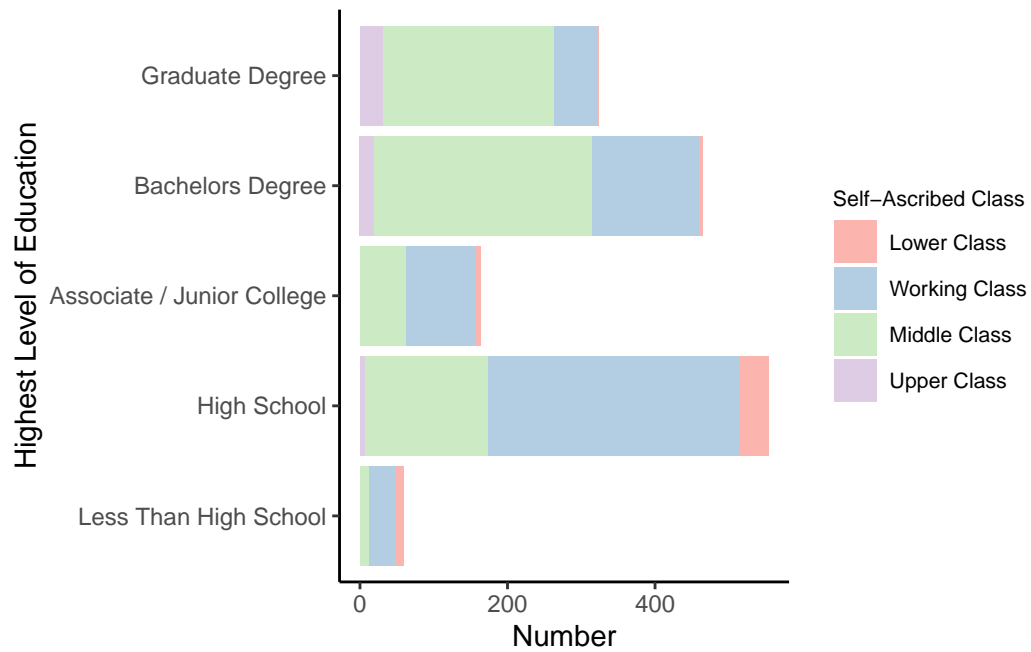

Figure 8: Respondent's Highest Level of Education by Self-Ascribed Social Class

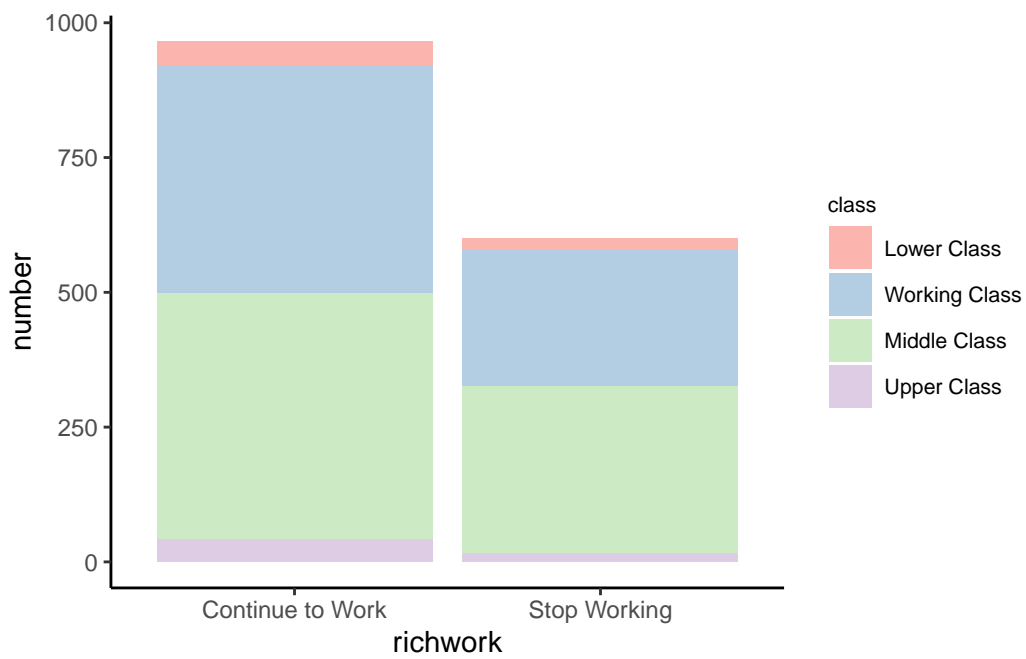

Figure 9: rich work vs class

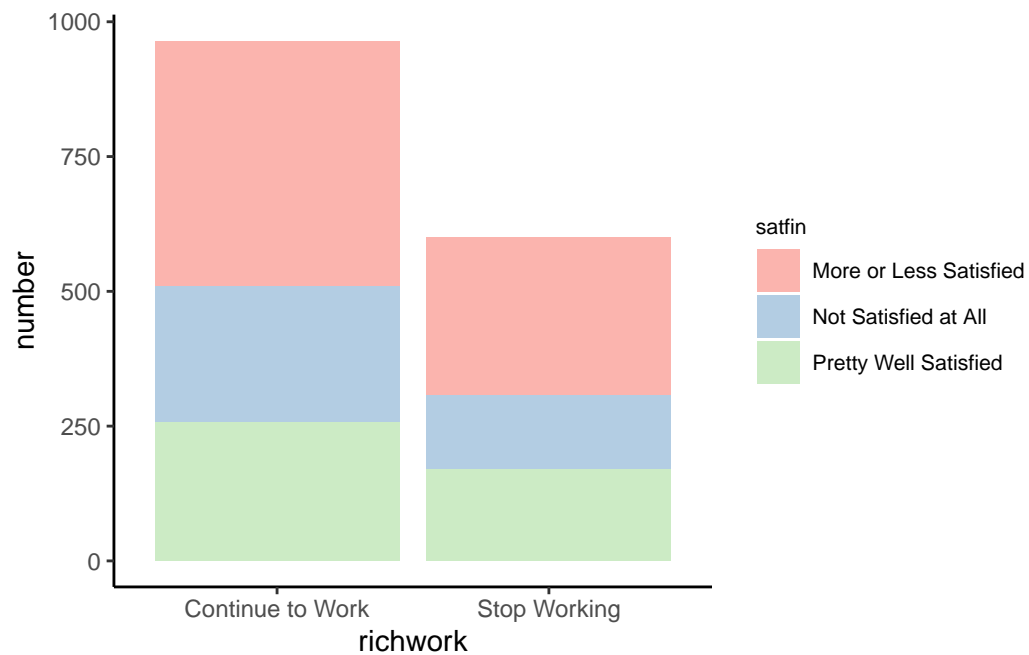

Figure 10: richwork vs satfin

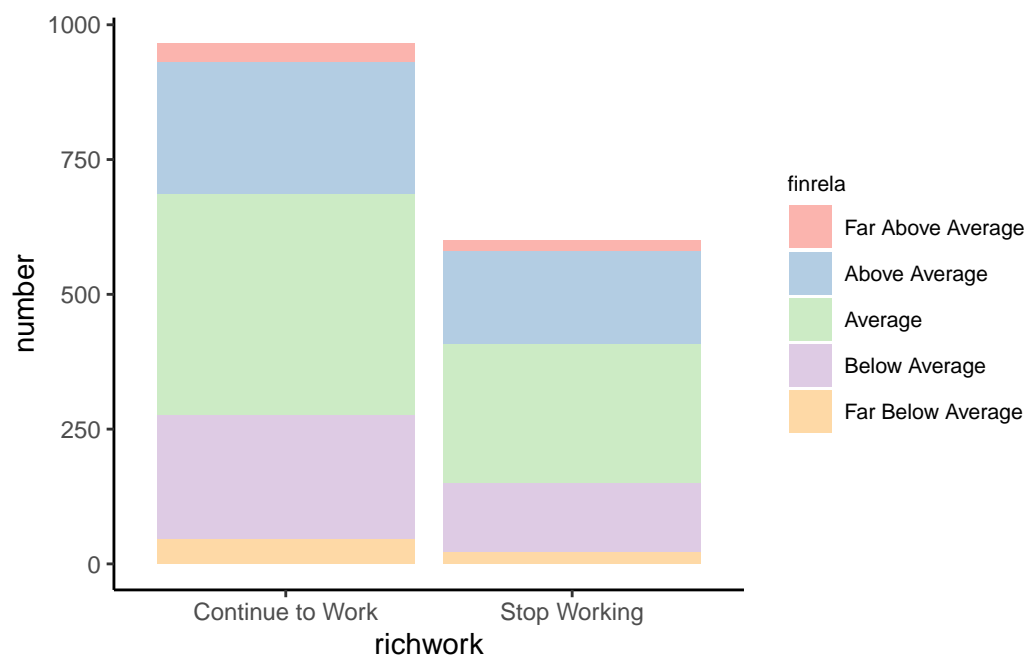

Figure 11: richwork vs finrela

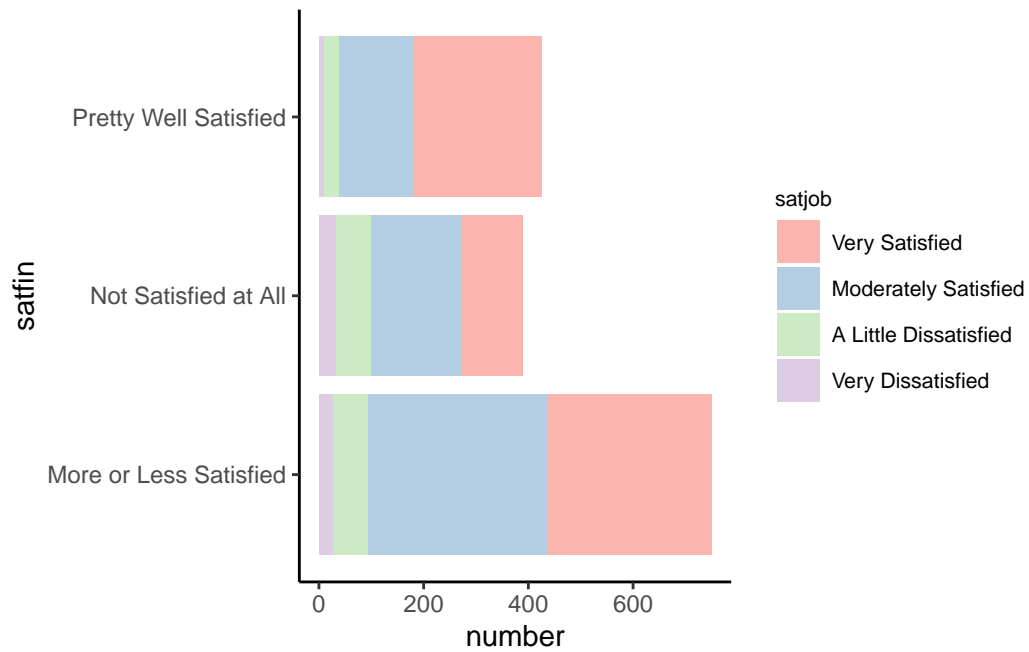

Figure 12: satfin vs satjob

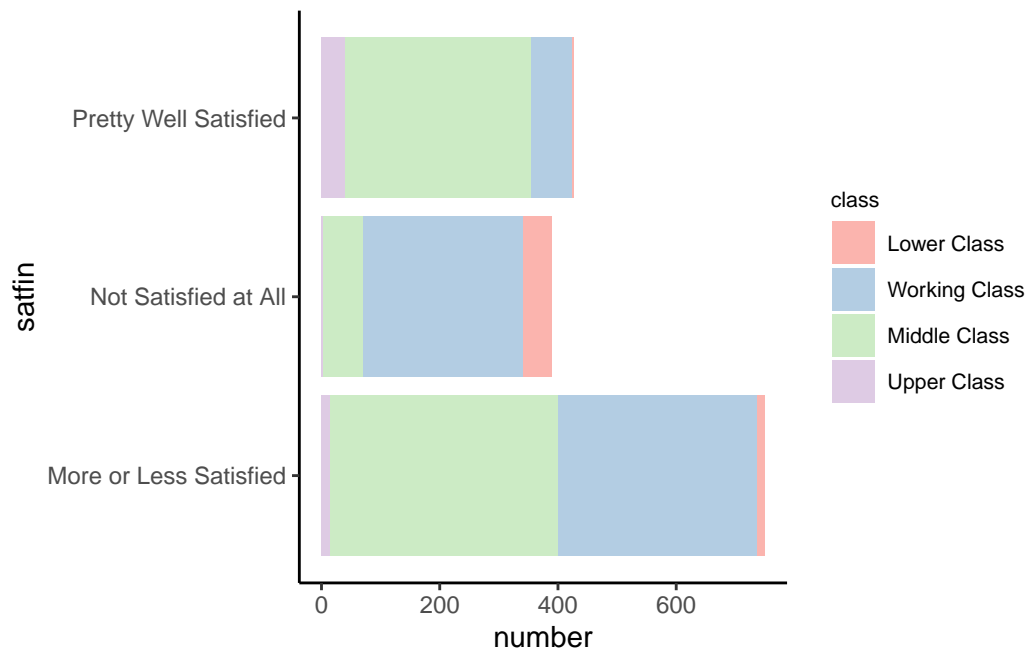

Figure 13: satfin vs class

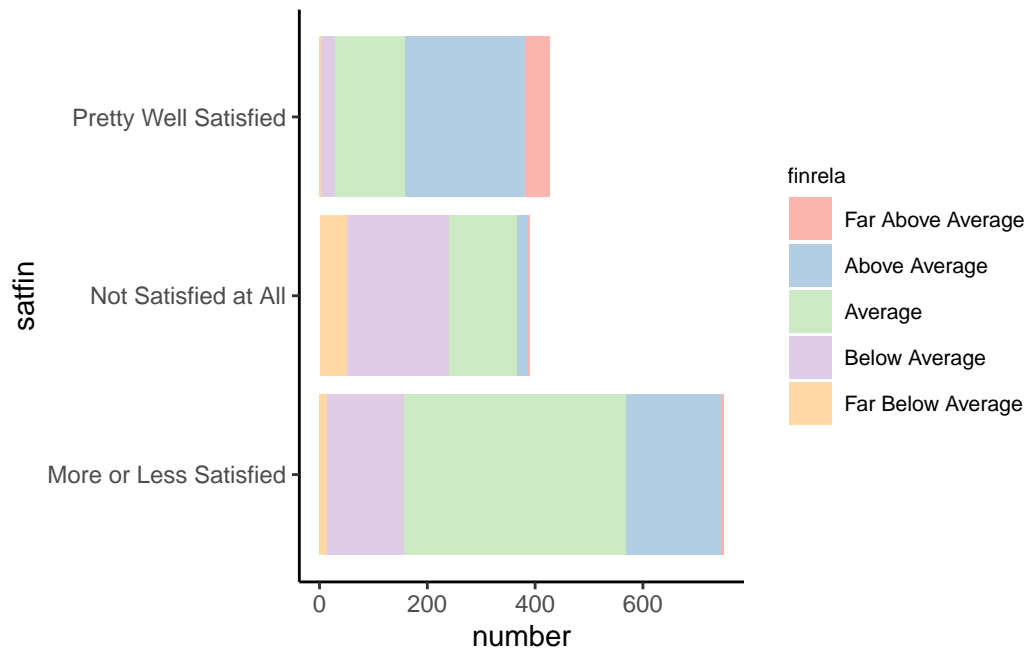

Figure 14: satfin vs finrela

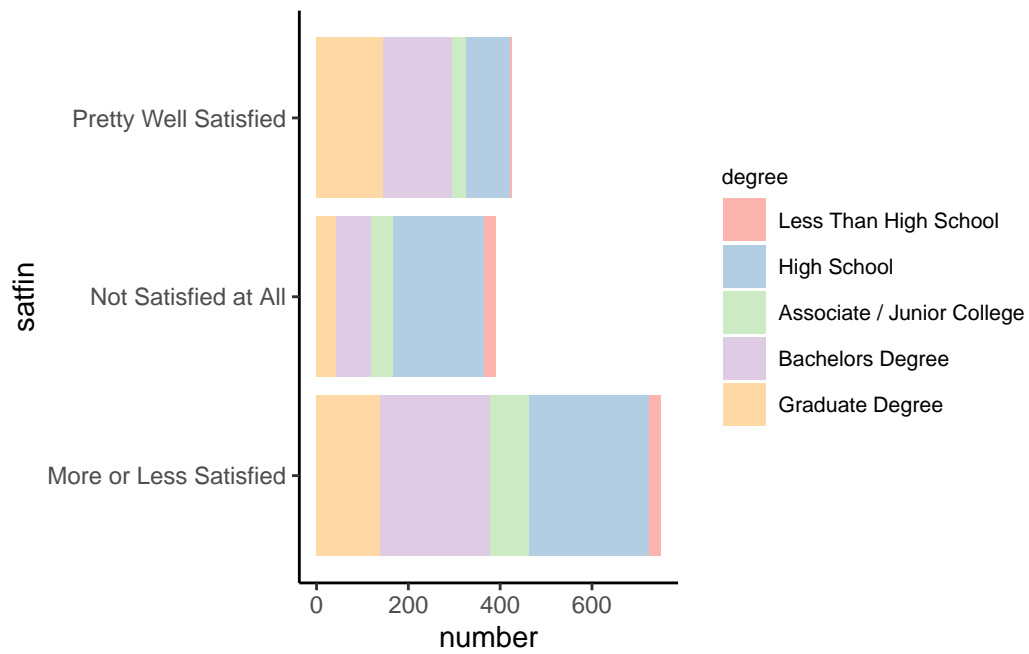

Figure 15: satfin vs degree

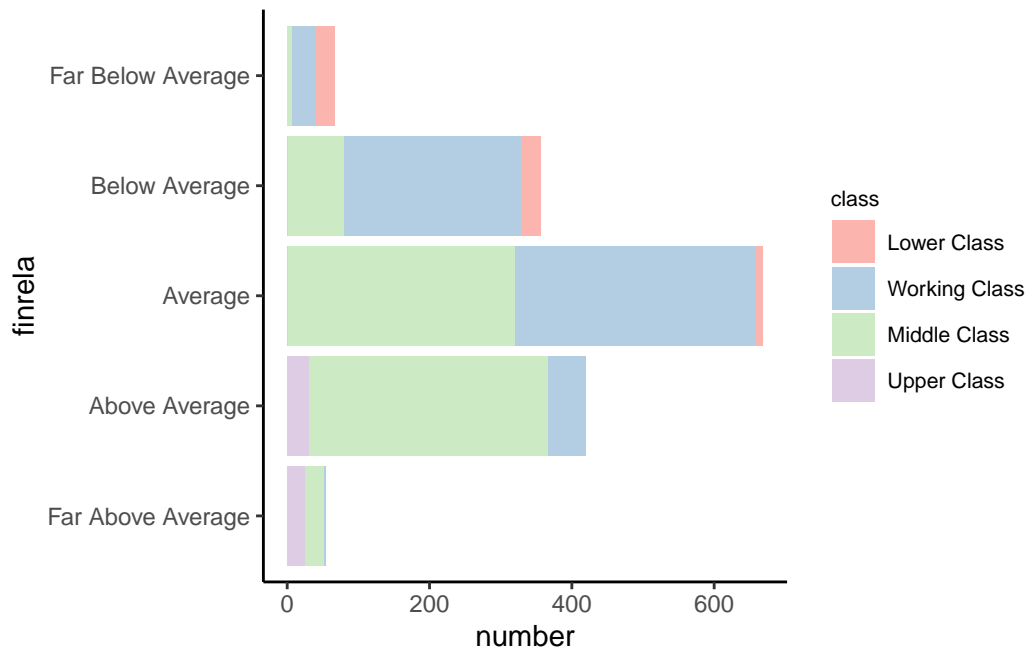

Figure 16: finrela vs class

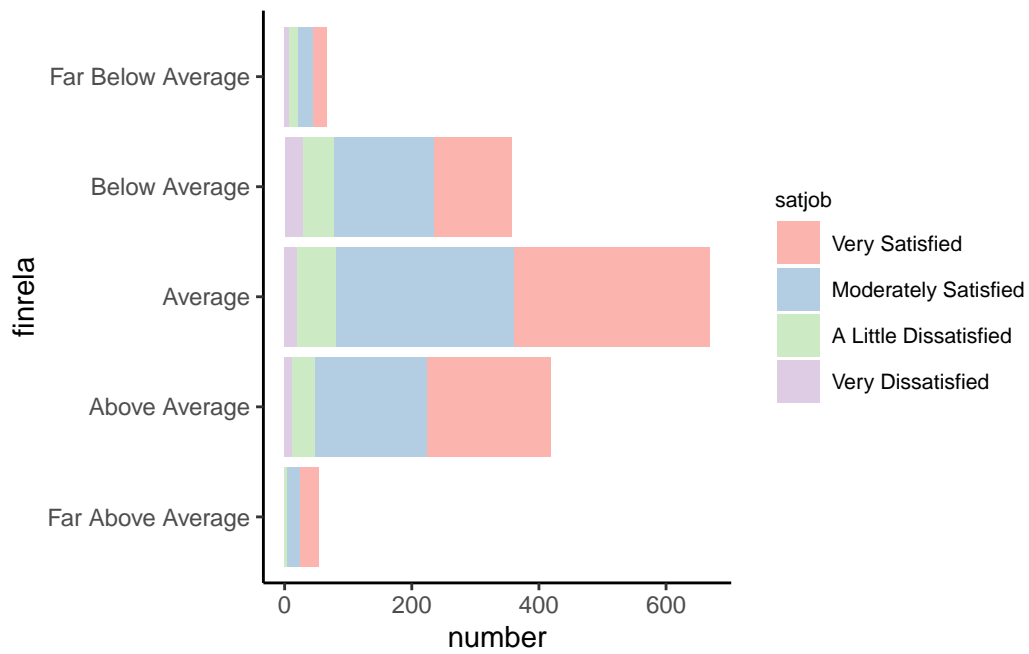

Figure 17: finrela vs satjob

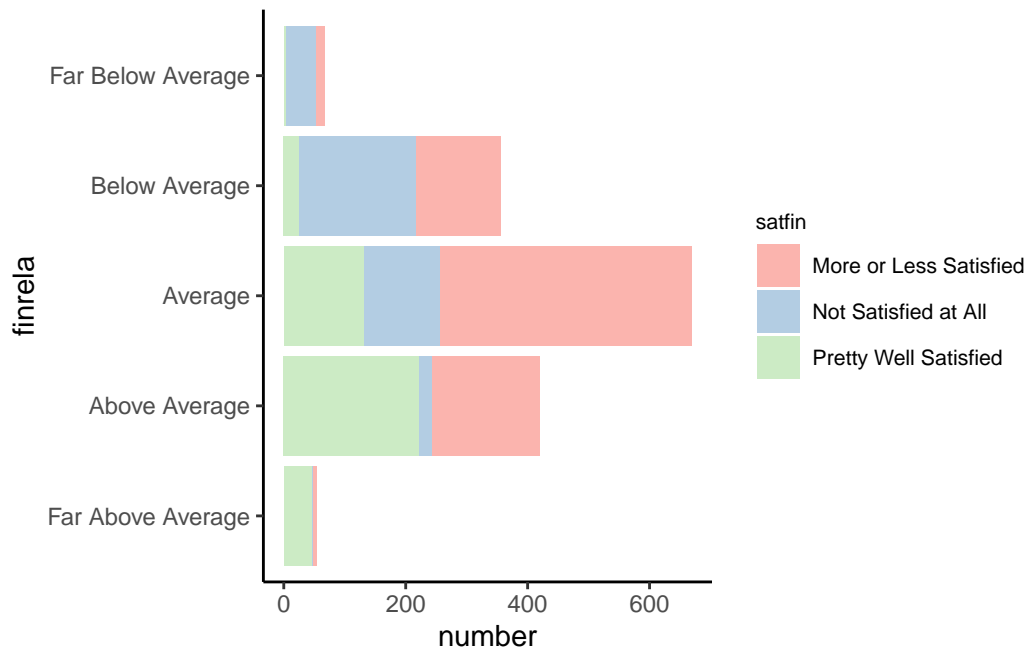

Figure 18: finrela vs satjob

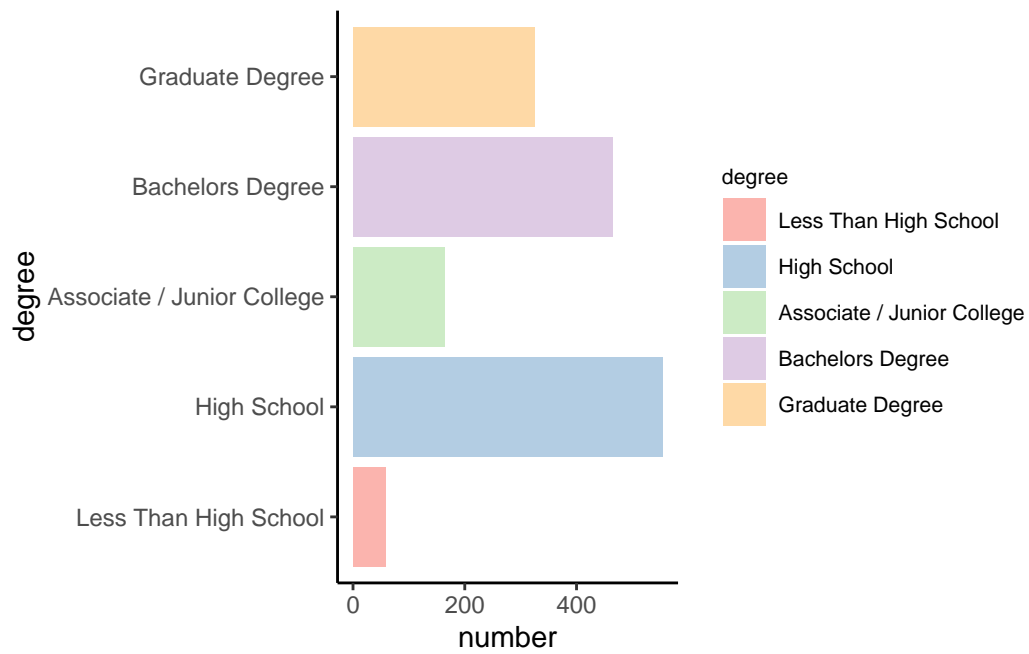

Figure 19: degree

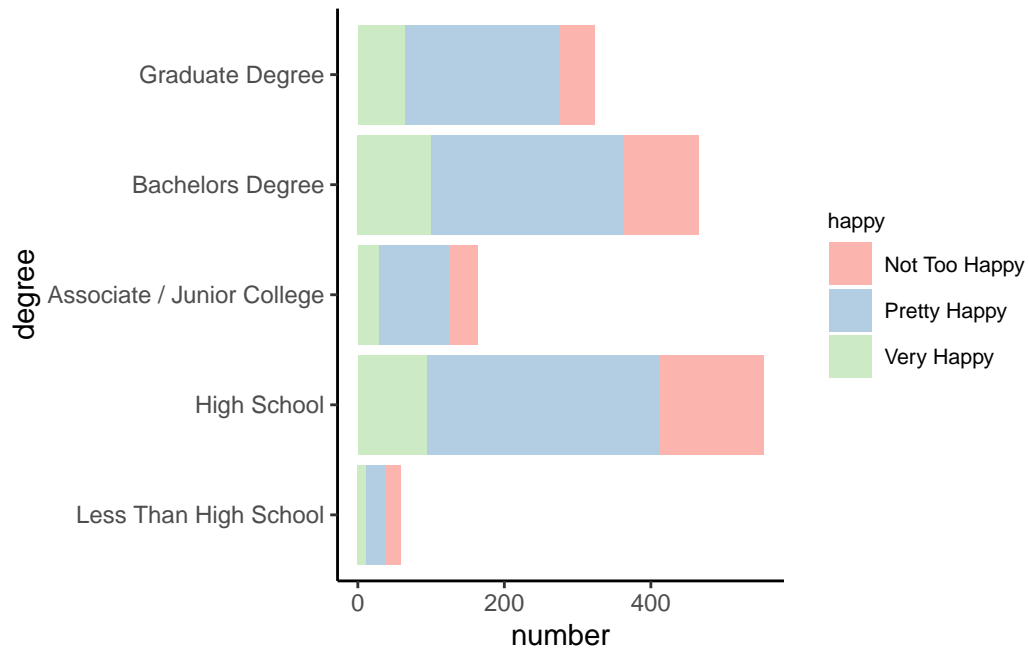

Figure 20: happy vs degree

1 Introduction

2 Data

3 Measurement

4 Results

5 Discussion

5.1 First discussion point

5.2 Second discussion point

5.3 Third discussion point

5.4 Weaknesses and next steps

Appendix

A Additional details

B References